The Journey

Day 1

Baie de Fourmis, St Jean Cap Ferrat Villefranche - Beaulieu

Cruise to the deep horseshoe bay of Villefranche sur Mer – one of the most beautiful anchorages along the Côte d'Azur. The scenic harbour is fringed with pastel coloured buildings and medieval streets.

Located just around the headland from Villefranche sur Mer is the exclusive Baie de Fourmis at St Jean Cap Ferrat. Take the tender ashore for a long lunch at Paloma Beach

Drop the anchor in the most amazing bay of Saint-Jean-Cap-Ferrat for a swim in crystal clear waters.

Visit the magnificent Villa Ephrussi de Rothschild, which overlooks the bays of Villefranche and Beaulieu. The villa is surrounded by nine gardens, each on a different theme: Florentine, Spanish, Garden à la française, exotic, a stone garden, a Japanese garden, a rose garden, Provençal and a Sevres garden. They were created between 1905 and 1912 under the direction of landscape architect Achille Duchêne.

Alternatively, head to the splendid Greek Villa Kerylos, a villa built in the early 20th century in a strategic location by the sea, that is now a historical monument.
