MARIU

Mariu is arguably a yacht at the height of fashion having been designed by, and built for, Giorgio Armani. Mariu is a stunning 49.9m Codecasa that is, quite simply, effortlessly chic.

A social, open-plan layout creates great spaces for socialising and makes the yacht feel like one that is much larger. The yacht has a generally minimalist interior design, with the focus placed on luxurious textures and tonal finishes, including leather, bleached oak panelling, soft-sheen aluminium and rustic teak.

Mariu's six double cabins provide accommodation for up to 12 guests and the yacht is well configured for families or groups of friends who wish to share. There's a master suite, a VIP and four en suite guest cabins.

Mariu's sun deck is an extremely popular spot with charter guests and is styled like one of the Mediterranean's finest beach clubs with cushioned sun pads, freestanding loungers and a Jacuzzi.

There's another cozy nest of seating forward on the bow; a great spot to take your breakfast or escape for a more secluded cocktail at sundown.

Meals aboard Mariu can be enjoyed at the large table on the aft deck, which is sheltered by the overhang of the deck above.

Mariu is an accredited RYA training centre for personal watercraft, and guests can attain a temporary license for the jet skis and WaveRunners. Other water toys onboard include wakeboards, kitesurfing equipment, stand-up paddleboards, kayaks, six sets of scuba diving equipment and various towable inflatables.
